

The Honorable Richard A. Jones
700 Stewart St.
Seattle, WA. 98101

I write this to inform others about the type of person I have come to know. Colton has shown me his true character and personality throughout the times that we have spent with each other. His kindness to others has shown me not only what type of person he is, but what type of person I wish to be. He has taught me to be strong when he was experiencing pressing issues from work or family matters. When an individual is able to project admirable attributes in a way that makes one want to aspire to have as well, I believe this reflects the well natured and kindness that individual holds. I haven't known Colton long enough to see his change from his past self. The man he is now however, is someone that is determined and exceptionally optimistic to take control of his life and future endeavors.

Sincerely,
